E-commerce firm not liable to pay GST on cab service by third parties: AAR

The Karnataka Authority of Advance ('AAR') Ruling has held that an E-Commerce Operator ('ECO') without control over drivers and passengers will not pay the GST on cab services provided by third parties. The AAR observed that the supply of services is not through the ECO, but is independent because of their unique business model, which merely connects the driver and the passenger

Alcoholic liquor not food or food product, job work related with manufacturing to attract 18% GST: Andhra HC

Alcoholic liquor is not food or food product and job work related with manufacturing of such beverage will attract GST at the rate of 18%, Andhra Pradesh High Court has said. This rate will be levied retrospectively. The High Court observed that the product in question cannot be treated as food, particularly because of the advertisements carried on the item that its consumption is injurious to health

GoM to stick to plan for 28% GST on online gaming

A Group of Ministers ('GoM') on casinos, racecourses and online gaming will likely stick to its earlier recommendation of a uniform 28% tax on the full value of the consideration on all the three. The GoM, however, might add a note about the subsequent deliberations of the GoM following a fresh round of inputs from stakeholders
